REVIVAL CLOSED SUNDAY EVENING

Pat Davis Choir Rendered Faithful Service. Brotherhood Meeting Interests Citizens.

The ten days revival meeting held in the Methodist church, closed Sunday evening with a crowded house to hear the Rev. Pat Davis deliver his last message. The members of the Pat Davis choir consisting of nearly fifty children of all denominations, were faithful in their attendance to the very end, and their music proved one of the strongest assets to the meeting. Rev Davis was unceasing in his praises of the future musical talent which Cloverport possessed in these children, and with each exhortation the young choirsters were given new inspiration for singing and they would peal forth again in all their glory.

Brotherhood Meeting.

The Brotherhood meeting held Sunday afternoon was comparatively well attended and there was a fair representation of the leading citizens of the town. Rev. Davis preached to them about "Fire and Life Insurance."

Rev. Davis said one of the greatest works for the good of humanity which was being carried on in the world today was that of the State Boards of Health and the physicians who were jointly aiding in the elimination of infectious diseases and were preaching the gospel of cleanliness and health all over the country. He appealed to the men to keep a clean city, to take more interests in the public schools, churches, and create better living conditions for the community at large. He urged a get-together spirit, and told his hearers that the people of Cloverport needed to get away from their self-satisfied way of living. "When a man gets right with God and begins to improve himself, and looks out after the interests of his fellow-man, he is then serving his Master and taking out the greatest life insurance in the world—the policy Heaven and insures you against the fires of hell," were Rev Davis' concluding remarks.

Rev Davis left Cloverport, Monday morning for Centertown, to hold a meeting. He is engaged to hold one in Lewisport with the Rev. Frank E. Lewis on July 12.

DEMOCRATS SEE VICTORY AHEAD

Republican Action Against League of Nations Brings Happiness to White House Leaders.

Washington, June 11.—The White House, has been a house of happiness for days, in fact ever since the Republican convention began at Chicago. From an administration leader today it was learned the White House views the Republican declaration on the surrender to the irreconcilables, the result of which will unite the Democratic party in San Francisco, and also draw to the Democratic candidate the support of a great body of independent Republicans, who sincerely wish for the League of Nations and whose vote will not be controlled by political necessities.

"The Republican party has gone wrong on a great moral issue," the administration leader said, adding "it has placed itself in opposition to church, labor, and business organizations and being wrong on a great moral issue, the administration cannot see how its candidate can be supported by the people."

CHAUTAUQUA TO BE HERE JULY 20-24

Circuit Manager Completes Organization of Local Committees. Paul Lewis, Pres.

The Central Community Chautauqua, which the majority of Cloverporters found recreation and pleasure in last summer, will have a return engagement here on July 20 to 24th, inclusive. The program this year will be entirely new, and one of the added attractions will be the play, "Polly of the Circus," a dramatized from the popular novel of the same title.

Mr. L. C. Campbell, circuit manager of the Chautauqua company, was in Cloverport, Wednesday and completed the organization of the local committees to arrange for the chautauqua. Paul Lewis was elected president of the organization, R. L. Oelze, vice president; J. C. Nolte, secretary, and N. H. Quiggins, treasurer. The following were elected chairman of their committees: T. A. Carter, advertising; C. W. Hamman, ground; D. B. Phelps, ticket; Miss Mary Owen Oelze, Junior.

The guarantors made a written agreement with Mr. Campbell that they would not pay over $3 in case there was a deficit from the chautauqua. The guarantors will have a meeting in a short time.

BURGLARS LOOT FIVE STORES

Make Raid on Four Stores For Cash Only. Bloodhounds May be Sent Out.

Burglars made a raid on four stores in Irvington, Monday night evidently looking for money only. The thieves entered the stores from the rear, and the merchants say they can't find anything missing except the small amount of cash left in their cash drawers and safes. Not over $3, or $4 was stolen from any of the stores.

The stores looted were J. M. Herndon's, Hardware, J. D. Ashcraft, Hardware, J. F. Vogel's Drug Store, and C. C. Smith, Grocery. Sheriff J. B. Hottell is trying to find a clew to the burglars, and he may send to Lexington, for blood hounds.

FIND COMET AUTO CO'S STOCK TO BE O. K.

Hardinsburg, June 15. (Special)—A party of well known citizens from here left last Wednesday afternoon to visit the Comet Automobile Company factory at Decatur, Ill., and investigate the proposition of the company which is offering stock for sale here. In the party going to Decatur were Messrs. Cleve Hendrick, cashier Farmers Bank and Trust Co., Russell Compton, of Hardinsburg Flour Mill Company, and Dud McGary, manager Hardinsburg Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse. They were all very much pleased with the plant and found everything as represented and heartily endorse the proposition. For any further information refer to Max Keol or R. T. Cooms, Hardinsburg, Ky.

"MISS HATTIE'S" SON VISITS C'PORT AFTER 30 YRS. ABSENCE

Mr. Preston Grinnell, a traveling salesman, of Louisville, and the son of Mrs. Hattie Grinnell, widely known as "Miss Hattie" by the caption she uses for her contributions to the Meade County Messenger and Leitchfield Gazette, was in Cloverport, Tuesday. ## AERIAL OBSER- VERS VISIT HERE

Hydroplane Enroute From Evansville Stops Here For Gas. Observing For Aerial Routes.

It was equal to a fire alarm Friday at noon when a hydroplane circled over Cloverport and you could see folks running from all directions getting to the river bank to see the plane as it lit upon the water and tied up at the landing to take on oil and gasoline. The news came over the wire on Thursday that the plane would be due here that afternoon, and several of the youngsters paroled the river bank until dusk waiting for the arrival, but the plane was delayed in Evansville.

The man in charge of the plane was H. G. Jones, of Akron, Ohio. He with his machinist were out on an observation tour from Akron to New Orleans and were returning by this route. They made the trip from Evansville here in forty-five minutes, and expected to reach Louisville in fifty minutes, then on to Cincinnati in time for a good night's rest.

In talking with Mr. Jones, he stated he was employed by a hydroplane corporation company, of Akron, which is developing the aerial system for carrying passengers, mail and express. He added that his company was establishing routes between Detroit and Cleveland also Cincinnati and Louisville, "and in about two years we will have a route flying over Cloverport," he said. In fact, Mr. Jones, stated he was taken observations for that purpose and he expected to return here in two weeks or more—if he was lucky enough to keep flying.

HARDING CHOSEN BY REPUBLICANS

Ohioan Enters Race as "Dark Horse." Gov. Coolidge Easily Nominated Vice Pres.

Warren G. Harding, United States Senator from Ohio, received the nomination for presidency at the Republican National Convention in Chicago which adjourned Saturday night. Senator Harding entered the convention as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse" class, and on the third day of the session his name was mentioned as the one most likely to break the nomination deadlock should neither General Wood, Gov. Lowden nor Senator Johnson take a commanding lead on that day. General Wood and Lowden ran a neck and neck race for leadership, and finally, "fearing a protracted deadlock which I believe would have been detrimental to the interest of the country," were the words of Gov. Lowden when he made the public statement that he would release his delegates and which turned the tide of votes for Harding.

Kentucky, which from the first was almost a solid Lowden State, flopped completely to the Harding column, and Pennsylvania gave Harding the necessary winning vote at the last.

The men who helped to put Senator Harding over, planned to nominate Senator Lenroot for Vice President, but the name of Gov. Alvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts stirred the delegates and galleries to repeated cheering, and he was swept into the second place on the ticket before the first roll call had gone two thirds its length.

Harding, Newspaper Man.

Warren G. Harding was born at Blooming Grove, Monon county, Ohio on November 2, 1865, and is the son of Dr. J. P. Harding, a practicing physician. He is a successful newspaper publisher and has owned and published the Marion Star, at Marion, Ohio, since 1884. He started in newspaper work when he was nineteen.

When the 30,000 inhabitants of Marion learned of Senator Harding's nomination they started a great celebration of blowing factory whistles, ringing church bells, and gathering on the streets in shouting groups.

The presidential nominee was married in 1891 to Miss Florence Kling. They have no children. Mrs. Harding was in Chicago with her husband when he received the nomination. Harding is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church at Marion and a regular attendant to its services when at home.

Realizes His Responsibility.

After his nomination, Senator Harding stated: "I am very proud as any American should be, of receiving the great honor from the Republican party. I am not unmindful of the obligation and responsibility that go with it."

Governor Coolidge accepted his honor and issued the following statement: "The nomination for Vice President coming to me unsought and unexpected, I accept as an honor and a duty. It will be especially pleasing to be associated with my old friend, Senator Warren G. Harding, our candidate for President."

TERRAPIN MARKED "H. W. MAY 28, 1902."

Miss Katherine Suters is prizing a terrapin which she found last week on Joe Mullen's place near here. The terrapin has engraved on its back the inscription "H. W. May 28, 1902," and in spite of its years it is just as lively as a one year old.

Bred Gilts for Sale

BRED TO FARROW IN APRIL

When you can have all the pigs, these gilts are good individuals of the very best breeding that I have been able to buy at any price, and bred to a son of Black Price the 1918 Grand Champion of the world and Big Uncle Sam by Big Buster by Giant Buster, The Epoch Maker, the latter hog is the largest boar that I have ever seen for his age and I have looked over some of the very best ones. These hogs are priced right, regular breeders stuff at farmers prices that we can all afford to pay.

If you want a herd boar that will put you in the limelight, a real boar, a son of Black Price, this is breeding that you cannot find anywhere else at three times the price that I am asking for him a great pig for some one that needs him at a bargain. This pig is right for hard service about eleven months old.
